PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.

Although the snow covers the streets to-night, rendering pedestriains most uncounfortable, a mass meeting of the Workingmen of the city, at Independence Squara, is largely attended, some diverse or six thousand men standing ankie deep in snow, listening to speeches of their representatives.

The employees of all the large manufacturing establishments of the county, marched to the place of meeting, besting terches and lanterns, and accompanied by bands of music. Mottees inscribed on banness were me ofly suggestive of peaceful conciliation of the present national difficutties, and expressive of approbation for the Crittenden plan of compromise.

Issae V. Vanhengthen, Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railtoad car-works, prosided over the desir erations of the meeting.

A series of ally written resolutions was read, and manimously adopted, lamenting the present mational trendbee, which are now agitasted and haatened by political demagogues, recommending a reposel, by State Legislatures, of all obnoxious laws, and the passage by Congress of Mr. Crittenden by political demagogues, recommending a reposel, by State Legislatures, of all obnoxious laws, and the passage by Congress of Mr. Crittenden by political demagogues, recommending a reposel, by State Legislatures, of all obnoxious laws, and the passage by Congress of Mr. Crittenden by the content of the prosent mational trendbee, which are now agitasted and have the desired of the prosent mational trendbee, which are now agitasted and have the desired of the prosent mational trendbee, which are now agitasted and have the desired of the prosent mational trendbee, which are now agitasted and have the content of the prosent mation
